1. Welcome/Check-In

2. Approval of April 2024 Meeting Notes

- Unanimously approved

3. Public Comment

- An attendee commented that it was difficult to find information about the meeting location and agenda. They suggested improvements in posting this on both cities' websites.

4. Safe Streets for All (SS4A) Discussion

- I. Zoe Miller opened this section by asking Committee members to share how they find out about community events and news – and what they suggest for getting the word out. Suggestions shared:
  - Community group chat with Lewiston and Auburn
  - Queers and Gears does a weekly community bike ride – Rainbow Bikes (they sponsor a few different rides (Insta group)
  - Lewiston Rocks FB group
  - City relies heavily on Sun Journal
  - Bates College newspaper
  - Parent groups and PTO

- Next Door
  - Lewiston Links: local
  - Auburn Updates:
  - Food truck at Bates is a gathering spot in summer
- II. Data collection and analysis – Eric Tang presented an overview of the data analysis thus far
- The two cities have provided thousands of crash reports
  - Analyses are being refined based on feedback from the committee
  - Fatal and serious injury crashes are concentrated in key corridors - some of the most highly traveled corridors
  - 126 crashes in the last ten years just in Auburn
  - About 7% of crashes are fatal, serious, or minor (not sure if I heard this right)
  - Under 1% of crashes involved pedestrians, .7% involved bicyclists
  - Much greater likelihood of being killed or injured in these crashes
- III. Project updates – Christine and Jason
- Working on policy and practice scan to ensure policy aligns with good practices
- IV. Survey and story collection
- Overview of Survey Promotion
    - City websites and social media
    - E-blasts through cities
    - Posters and handbills throughout the cities
    - Lawn signs in a few key locations
    - Paper copies available at libraries, city offices, and housing authorities
    - Cultural brokers
    - Tabling at events
  - Story Collection - “What’s Your Safety Story?”
    - Stories will be collected through drop-ins at community organizations and tabling at events – as well as online through the survey question.
    - These will focus on priority populations including people experiencing homelessness, immigrants and refugees, older adults, and people with disabilities.
  - Help from Committee members and stakeholders – Here’s where you come in!
  - Electronic : Email your network(s) and post on social media you engage with (templates will be provided)
  - Person-to-person: Promote to neighbors/coworkers/community groups, etc (use handbill); Collect paper copies.

- Events: Help with tabling and canvassing at community celebrations, fairs, and meals (sign-up sheet was circulated)
5. Discussion on Continental Mill Redevelopment
    - Redevelopment of the entire continental mill site on the border of Lewiston and Auburn
    - 375 units of housing; restaurants, office space, and light industrial use space
    - Attendees provided input on improved pedestrian and bike transportation options for accessing the location.
  6. Discussion on June Meeting
    - The group briefly discussed plans for the June Meeting, including a discussion and review of the current Complete Streets policy.
  7. Adjourn
