FESTIVAL PLAZA BRINGS TOGETHER PUBLIC BISTRO & BOOKS

AUBURN, ME. – The Auburn Public Library (APL) will be joining Thursdays at Festival Plaza beginning Thursday, August 20, 2015. The Auburn Mobile Library is looking forward to venturing outside the library walls to meet new people and to deliver services in a fun and convenient manner. Library staff will be offering library card registration (free for Auburn, Lewiston and Minot residents), book checkouts, demonstrations of APL’s digital resources, as well as offering assistance with reference questions. They will also be holding a mini book sale!

Director Mamie Ney says, “This is a wonderful opportunity for the Library to get out and meet people! It’s the perfect way for us to grow our programs.” The Library hopes to build this project into a permanent program that will allow the Library to travel to where its many services can best reach its customers.
